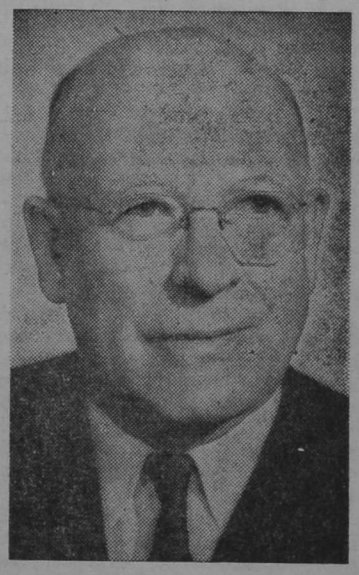
Roosevelt Puts Out The Welcome Mat For All U.B.I.C. Visitors And Guests



FIRST SPEAKER at the opening general session will be Elder LeGrande Richards, member of the Quorum of Twelve, LDS Church, and USAC board of trustee president.

TALK ON WATER—George D. Clyde, supporter of reclamation and water development in Utah, will address the afternoon UBIC general session on Thursday afternoon.

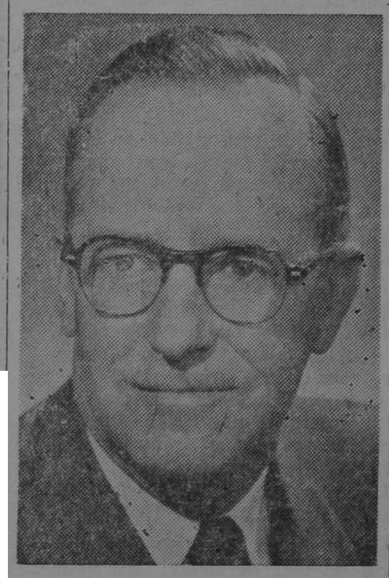
INDIAN ADVISOR—Morning general session speaker on Friday will be John S. Boyden, prominent Utah attorney, who has aided the Ute Indian in solving legal problems.

Governor, LDS Apostle Head List Of Talented Speakers; Professional Entertainment Signed

With the opening day of the Uintah Basin Industrial Convention less than a week away reports from the officers and committee chairmen indicate that this years program and activities will equal any of the preeceding affairs.

Keynote speakers for the four general sessions will be Governor J. Bracken Lee, LeGrande Richards, John S. Boyden, George D. Clyde and John Crow.

Governor Lee will address the general session Friday at 1:15 p.m. He is completing the last year of second term as Utah's governor and has for sometime held high spots in Utah's political circles.



UTAH'S GOVERNOR J. Bracken Lee, will be the concluding speaker on a filled UBIC program. He will address the Friday afternoon general session at city park.

AGENCY LEADER—John O. Crow, Uintah-Ouray Indian Agency Superintendent, will discuss problems of the Ute Indian as a part of the Friday morning general session program

Addressing the first general session Thursday at 10:30 a.m., will be Mr. Richards, president of the Board of Trustees Utah State Agriculture College. He is a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, quorum of the Twelve Apostles and a strong advocate for education.

Mr. Clyde, who will speak Thursday at the 1:15 p.m. general session, is director of the Utah Water and Power Board. He is Utah's representative on the Upper Colorado River Commission and will speak on the Central Utah Project.

Mr. Boyden, attorney for the Ute Indian Tribe, will keynote the Friday morning general session. Also speaking at this session will be John Crow, Superintendent of the Uintah-Ouray Indian Agency. Both of these indian authorities will discuss indian affairs and problems of the modern indian.

1956 Officers

George E. Stewart is president of this year's committee. Helping him as vice-presidents are Mrs. Parley Rawlings, Kenneth Aycock, Fran Harrison, Owen F. Burgener, and honorary vice-president. L. F. Hutchings.

All activities of this year's UBIC have been planned and centered around the slogan which was suggested by Mrs. L. F. Hutchings, "Roosevelt's Golden Jubilee, 1906 to 1956 — From Reservation to Riches."

Parade At 5 P.M.

Activities this year will not get under way until 5 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 8. Previous years first day activities have begun at 9 a. m. Opening feature will be a parade at 5 p.m. Wednesday, with line-up to be at the elementary school. It will then move to main street and north to second north and west to the hospital corner, then south to the park. The parade will be repeated at 9:30 a.m. again on Thursday.

Proffesional Entertainers

A talent show will be presented Wednesday and Friday nights. On Thursday night, however, an all star show will be featured. The Lettermen, a professional singing quartet, will perform for the assembled crowd. This quartet, composed of Arch J. Stokes, Bill Bobolis, Grant Russell and Orvil Holley, have been singing together for seven years and turned professional one year ago. They are all music teachers in Utah schools and sing popular and barbershop numbers. Accompanist for the group will be Mrs. Eleanor Smith of Gusher.

Fred Ketch, professional ventriloquist and his dummy Jerry Jerry will also appear on the all-star show Thursday night.

Miss Utah Coming

The women's and teenage girl's departments will meet jointly Thursday and Cheryl Brown, Miss Utah of 1956, will be the featured guest. She will model clothes, and Miss Ruth Tolman, chairman of the Miss Utah contest, will speak at this session.

(Continued On Back Page)

★ U.B.I.C. READY . . .

(Continued From Page 1)

Leatha Coleman Tatge, professional lecturer will speak to the woman's department on Friday and on the same day teenage girls will hear a talk on party snacks by Genevieve Allen of the Utah Dairy Council.

The men's department will make a tour of the Uintah Basin Regional LDS Dairy Farm the first day and on Friday Congressman Henry Aldous Dixon will address the men.

Dan Valentine, Salt Lake Tribune Columnist, will speak to the teenage boys on Thursday. The Friday program has not been announced.

Story Princess

Story Princess, Eileen R. Dunyon will entertain the small children both afternoons, while the children from 7 to 12 will have a hobby show, doll show, pet show, costume show and games.

A band concert will be presented Wednesday evening, under the direction of Owen F. Burgener. While the all-star show and talent shows are being presented, childrens movies will be in progress.

Each night there will be a dance on the new concrete slab, which has been poured in the city park for this years activities. Art Smith's Orchestra will furnish the dance music Wednesday and Thur. and Friday's music will be supplied by Reginald Birchinal's band.

Dance tickets will sell for $1 each night and will give each person an opportunity to win one of the prizes. Prizes this year will be a 300 Savage Rifle,, $111 value; 2 Marie Antionette figurines, $60 value; fly rod and case, $25 value; and an electric blanket, $19.75 value.

A late announcement revealed that a 9 cubic foot Westinghouse refrigerator valued at $270 has been added to the list of prizes.

Continuous Events

Continuous UBIC events are the flower show, art exhibit, industrial exhibits and handicraft exhibits. They will be opened from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. every day.

There will be ball games each afternoon. Tennis and horse shoe pitching contests have also been planned.

A Miss Utah reception will be held on the C. N. Memmott patio Thursday afternoon for UBIC committee chairmen and special guests.